Gearing up for term three

Kahu Youth is back to the grind in the office after an amazing school holiday programme. We had a huge variety of activities such as watching the latest ski/snowboarding movies with warm, yummy cookies, along with day trips to Aspiring Trampolining in Hawea, and even venturing over the hill to Queenstown for a shopping, skating and a ten-pin bowling mission. Look out for more adventures with Kahu in the next holidays.

During term three we have a brand new workshop 'Wanna be a film star' with actor/director Jay Simon. So if you have ever dreamt of being a Hollywood star, come and get some tips and tricks from a man who has been there and done it. He will teach you all the ways to get that part at castings and earn millions, for free!

guru Su Hoskin.

Also, don't forget our regular drop-ins every Friday and Saturday, these are still as popular as ever. We cook dinner

“ During term three we have a brand new workshop 'Wanna be a film star'.

The first session is being held on Thursday August 2, get in touch for more details.

Our very own 'Wanaka Young Change Makers' (WYCM) also have an exciting project for term three. They will be learning all about worm farms, compost, and sustainable farming at Glendhu Farm with together, play pool, have free internet and tons of other games and activities for everyone 11 years to 24 years to participate in.

Day dream Belieber

TIM BREWSTER

Wanaka's Billie Scurr is still coming down to earth after her "once in a lifetime" concert last week with teen heart throb Justin Bieber. Thanks to a last minute invite, Billie was part of an audience of only 200 at a special VIP performance by the Canadian with the perfect voice.

The tickets were won by her friend Lexi Mills in Nelson who she had met while waiting for tickets to a One Direction concert in Christchurch earlier this year. Lexi found she had won the two VIP tickets only four days before the event last Thursday and asked Billie to join her. With some rapidly organised financial help from her parents, Billie scrambled to book for her first trip to Auckland and her dream concert that has been the envy of her friends.

"It was amazing, he was pointing at us and making eye contact," she said. Justin was about four or five metres away and she was able to sing along with him on all of his songs and take part in a "handscramble" when he reached over to the audience. The highlight of the evening was the performance of "As long as you love me." Billie's mother Nicky recalls her own similar emotions at her daughter's age when Donny Osmond performed. "It was just the same. A lot of the boys didn't like him because we all did." As well as the concert memories, Billie's souvenirs include a Justin Bieber t-shirt, the VIP ticket and a "scent card" which has contains a sample of Justin's recently released perfume, Someday. She did buy a bottle of the product which is now empty.
